A MESSAGE FROM YOUR MP

DEAR FRIENDS,

This past year has been a time of change for many of us in Saskatoon West. Many of us had to adapt to the circumstances that COVID-19 have created in our community.

As your Member of Parliament, my situation is no different. I have kept my 22nd Street office open to serve you as much as the health restrictions allow while working virtually from home.

On a personal note, Cheryl and I are now empty nesters with our two sons having moved out and starting out on their own paths. This past summer we moved out of our house and into a condominium downtown.

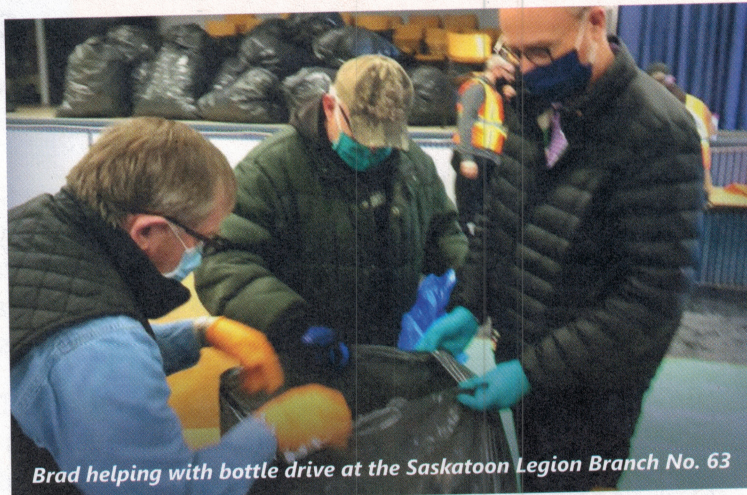

Housing in our city is an issue that I continue to work on as your MP. As recently as January, I met with federal government officials to advocate on behalf of projects in Saskatoon West that will provide more social housing units.

If you need my help on any federal issue, please contact my office at (306) 975-6555 or email: brad.redekopp@parl.gc.ca.

Thank you again for entrusting me with the honour and privilege to represent you in our Parliament.

Sincerely,

Brad Redekopp

THE FEDERAL NDP IS FAILING CANADIANS!

With the NDP's help, Justin Trudeau and his Liberal government have shut down democracy.

Jagmeet Singh and the NDP caucus must stop propping up Justin Trudeau's tax-and-spend, anti-Saskatchewan, Liberal government. Only the Conservatives are standing up for ordinary, hardworking Canadians!

Jagmeet Singh and the NDP: Are they right for Saskatoon West?

A few months ago during the provincial election, many of you answered "no" when the bedrock NDP riding of Saskatoon Riversdale, home of former NDP premiers Romanow and Calvert, voted for the Saskatchewan Party.

Indeed, Jagmeet Singh's NDP is not the NDP of yesterday. The modern federal NDP caucus has given up on hardworking Canadians and Saskatchewan.

Another former NDP premier, Rachel Notley, has chastised Jagmeet Singh and the federal NDP as "ridiculously naive."

She said they need to start to "think about working people." To throw regular folks under the bus as the federal NDP is doing, is according to Notley, "very elitist."

Yet, Singh and the federal NDP are doing just that. Our resource and agriculture sectors are the lifeblood that supports Canada.

They provide revenue to pay for essential governmental services, jobs for Canadians and provide economic opportunities for our local community.

And now when we find ourselves in a pandemic, Singh has openly told the media that he's willing to give Justin Trudeau a "blank cheque Parliament" for the next three years. He is willing to trade NDP support, dismissing behaviour by the ethically challenged Liberal government, in exchange for these dangerous policies that attack our resource industries here on the prairies.

It was with the NDP's support that Trudeau was able to shut down Parliament throughout the summer. Canadians deserve better. You deserve better. ■
